-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-54 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Caswell et al (US 5,964,891)

Caswell et al teaches a process of identifying and managing interactive support service applications associated with consumer electronic devices, the consumer electronic devices coupled together within a home network including a gateway device coupled to access the Internet and coupled to a display unit, the process executed by the gateway device comprising:

- determining device identification information associated with a selected one of the electronic devices for which a support service application is required; (col.2, lines 25-45)

- providing the device identification information to a support server computing system via the Internet; (col.1, lines 35-38)

- downloading an interactive support service application associated with the selected device from the selected server computing system via the Internet; (col.2, lines 4-18)

- executing said downloaded interactive support service application at the gateway device to provide a remote interactive support service process for said selected device, wherein said

interactive support service application comprises a diagnostic application including instructions executable by said gateway device to determine a current functional state of said selected device and determine diagnostic information based on said current functional state of said selected device, said diagnostic information indicating a problem associated with said selected device; (col.3, lines 8-35)

- wherein said interactive support service process comprised a remote interactive manual providing educational instructions to a home network system user regarding operation of said selected device; (col.3, lines 25-65)

- wherein said interactive support service process comprises a remote interactive maintenance process for instructing a home network system user in solving maintenance problems associated with said selected device; (col.3, lines 25-65; Figs. 4 & 7)

- displaying information indicative of said current functional state of said selected device on the display unit; (Fig.5)

- forming URL based on said device ID and accessing said selected server via Internet using said URL; wherein said device ID includes associated vendor information indicative of a vendor of the selected device, and model information indicative of the model of the selected device. (col.3, lines 8-35)

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-54 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
